BANGALORE, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1913.

PART II.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

CIVIL SIDE.

Notification dated 29th October 1913.

The following rules framed by the Chief Court under Section 8 of the Mysore Small Cause Courts Regulation, VIII of 1911, having received the sanction of Government are hereby published for general information:—

1. On the day fixed for hearing, after the pleas of the defendant have been recorded, either party may apply for the hearing of the suit by a composite court. No such application shall be entertained at any subsequent stage of the suit.
2. Among the persons present in the court, six persons shall be selected by the Judge and out of them three names shall be selected by lot; and these together with the Judge shall form the composite court.
3. No person shall be a juror, who is a near relation of either party to the suit, or who has been convicted of any offence involving moral turpitude in a Criminal Court or who has any interest in the subject matter of the suit, or whom the court considers not to be of a sufficiently respectable position in life.
4. If it is not practicable to get a sufficient number of persons in the manner aforesaid, the case may be adjourned to a future day for which not less than six persons shall be summoned from the list of the jurors and assessors prepared under Section 321 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Fifteen days at least before the date fixed for the trial of the suit the Judge shall cause not less than six persons named in the list to be summoned to attend the court at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons. Provided always that no person shall be summoned or compelled to serve on the jury more than twice within one year, or if he has been summoned and has attended as a juror or assessor at any Criminal Court within six months next before the delivery of such summons.
5. The jurors shall be chosen by lot from the persons summoned to act as such.
6. As each juror is chosen under Rule 2 or Rule 5, his name shall be called aloud and upon his appearance either party to the suit may take objection to his acting as a juror.
7. (1) Every objection taken to a juror shall be decided by the court and such decision shall be recorded and be final.

(2) Where the objection is allowed the place of such juror shall be supplied by any other juror attending in obedience to a summons or if there is no such other juror present, then by any other person present in the court whose name is on the list of jurors or whom the court considers a proper person to serve on the jury.

Provided that no objection to such juror or other person is taken and allowed.

8. Where it is necessary to summon a jury the party at whose instance a composite court is allowed, shall deposit in court the sum of fifteen rupees for payment to the jury and such sum or so much thereof as the Judge directs shall be paid to the jurors as remuneration for the services rendered by them and shall be considered as costs in the suit unless the court otherwise directs.
